Hesston College is hosting a high school group from Japan. Along with a variety of experiences that we are providing through the college, the group would also like to have the opportunity to experience US culture through a weekend home stay. We are looking for households who would be willing to host one Japanese High School student from Friday evening (after supper) through Monday morning breakfast August 2 through 5. We would provide $100 to each hosting household to help defray any expenses from planned activities on Saturday and Sunday. We would hope that in addition to getting to know the household that they could also enjoy special activities that you enjoy doing. Contact John Murray for questions or to sign up.
